New York, N. Y., Jan. 10.-Judging from the reports that are finding their way to this city from the south, the Jeffries-Berger-Gotch vaudeville company is now making the hit on the carcult that was expected. The impression appears to be spreading that the big fellow should drop his theatrical tour and get down to real training if he is to be taken seriously as a contender in the fight with Johnson next summer. Hisses and hoots of derision are not unknown sounds in the ears of the former champion, and it is said that he is seriously contemplating cutting short his tour and heading direct for the Pacific coast. The "all-champion" troupe was roundly hissed recently in New Orleans, and Jeffries himself came in for a burst of displeasure at his exhibition in Galveston. The constant bombardment by questioners and interviewers all along the line is also said to have got on the big man's herve and he is said to be determined to get to work at once and prove to his detractors that he can and will train and get into condition to defeat Johnson. The latest description of Jeffries and his work as reported by a

New Orleans sporting writer appears to bear out this idea. "It is as follows: "Jeffries is probably down to weight but he is far from being in condition. The big fellow has very little superfluous flesh, but his flesh is not hard, it is soft and muscular. His condition is readily shown when he and St. Regis. J. M. Arthur. New 1918.

J. B. Klein, St. Louis: W. H. Biblet. Gotch are seen together. Gotch's muscles are all hard and his flesh is all muscle, while Jeffries is exactly the opposite. Whether six months' work will a L. Goldenberg. Santa Rosa. N. M.; posite. Whether six months' work will turn this flesh into hard muscle is a question, and a serious one, with Jeffries. Then, too, his wind is exceedingly bad. He boxed three one minute inds with Berger and hard after each round. His nose still seems to bother him and he reems to breathe deeply with difficulty. In one thing Jeffries is as fast as he ever was, and that is in footwors. He is as light as a cat on his feet and quick and his feet for such a big man. Nearly evhis speedy footwork, and those who saw him in his prime said that he was as > when he shadow boxes and spars he does not seem to be in earnest. He goes through it like it was an awful grind. He makes it rather entertaining for the crowd, but a year of such work would never get him in condition. When a fighter has been out of the game for five years it takes hard, earnest work to get him back into shape. "His sparring with Berger was really funny. Both wear about 15 ounce gloves -young pillows-and the hammering

they get would harm no one, Berger swings wildly and Jeff ducks, and the crowd thinks Jeff is very clever. Then

Berger shoves his face out and lets Jeff good as ever in this respect.

"It looks like this thestrical tour will do Jeff no good. All through his stunt poke him thrice in the face with the pillow. The bout is interesting enough, but so awfully tame. "Getting off the superfluous flesh was probably a hard task, and the whole Caucasian race ardently hopes that Jeff will make hard muscle out of what is soft flesh now. If he does and his wind gets better, it will be goodby John-POP GEERS STILL FAVORITE HORSEMAN Old Time Driver Still Retains His Popularity on the Track.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 19. - Whether during the racing or in winter quarters, the racing and training string of the veteran horseman Ed F. Geers always attracts more attention than that of any other trainer in the country. This has been true for many years past and will remain so while "Pap" is alive. every trotting horseman knows,

As every trotting horseman knows, the Geers string is now located at Bill-ings park track. Memphis, and contains for the present 33 head from which his campaiguing material for the season of 1910 will be selected. The first direct information about Geers's stable has been received from 1. S. Shafer, who will be better known to horsemen under his popular name of For many years "Leff" has acted as second trainer to Mr. Geers.
